

Washington State Department of Veterans Affairs

Women Veterans Advisory Committee Member Application

The mission of this Committee is to ensure that Washington's women veterans have equitable access to federal and state veterans' services and benefits through active outreach and advocacy.

We strive to have a diverse Committee to best represent all women veterans in Washington State. We are involved in many activities and attempt to appoint women with certain skill sets needed at various times throughout the year. If you are not selected at this time, we will keep your application on file for possible future use.
